TERRACE DAYS 2024 GRAND MARSHAL LARRY WEIR

Honoring Larry Weir: A Pillar of Washington Terrace's Community

For over four decades, Larry Weir has been woven into the fabric of Washington Terrace, leaving an indelible mark of service and dedication. As the Grand Marshal for Washington Terrace's Terrace Days, Larry stands as a testament to the profound impact one individual can have on a community.

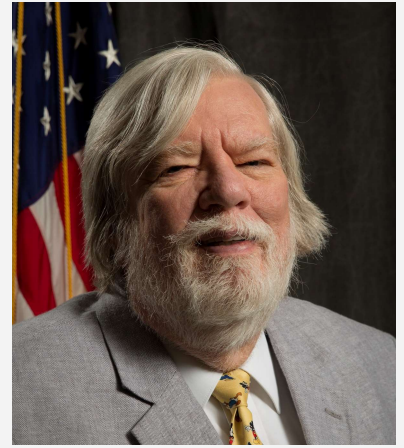

Larry's journey in Washington Terrace began in 1978 when he brought his family to this tightknit neighborhood. Since then, his commitment to service has been unwavering. Serving twice on the Parks Planning Committee, Larry played a pivotal role in enhancing recreational opportunities for residents. Notably, he orchestrated the annual Terrace Day 5k run, transforming it into a cherished event that brought the community together year after year.

Beyond his contributions to the Parks Committee, Larry's service extended to the city's governance. He selflessly dedicated his time to the planning commission for an impressive decade and served on the city council for four years, advocating for the betterment of Washington Terrace and its residents.

However, Larry's impact transcends mere civic duties. His devotion to the youth of the community shines brightly through his support of the Boy Scouts. In particular, his commitment to Eagle Scouts stands out, as he meticulously crafted shadow boxes to commemorate their achievements, preserving memories for a lifetime.

Larry's selflessness and generosity epitomize the spirit of giving back. His love for Washington Terrace and its residents is palpable, evident in every endeavor he undertakes. As Terrace Days celebrates the essence of community, there could be no more fitting choice for Grand Marshal than Larry Weir.

In honoring Larry, we not only recognize his countless contributions but also celebrate the power of one individual to profoundly impact the lives of many. Thank you, Larry, for your unwavering dedication, your boundless generosity, and your enduring commitment to making Washington Terrace a better place for all.
